"Being Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." - Deus Caritas Est (God is Love) Encyclical by Pope Benedict XVI

Jesus compels us to make a choice. Either you're with him or against him, but if he is who he said he is, we have to give our whole life to him. He has to be center of our lives. If he isn't who he said he is, he's a dangerous misguided fanatic. Think of his claims. We must not be complacent if his claim of being the Son of God is true. We must fall deeply in love with who he is - his personhood. Christ demands a response.
